

A Call for Wilderness Stewardship from First Unitarian Church

I liked to go down to that big arch because I like going under stuff.
Tom, age 4

The earth takes care of us and we need to take care of the earth – it's as simple as that!
Ellie Kaiser, age 12

I love Crater Lake. It feels more natural to be outside.
Aidan, age 11

I love to hike and camp. I love the mountains.
Owen, age 5

I went to Yellowstone and saw a stinky geyser.
Silas, age 5

I love to hike. I want to see Arches someday.
Sophia, age 8

I love to go swimming, rafting, hiking and climbing. We went to Lake Powell and when we went climbing, we saw Indian carved pictures. They were very interesting.

Kiera, age 7

I like to ski in the forest at Solitude. The forest is beautiful. I like to go to the mountains.

Kyle, age 5

I saw a pack of five wolves hunting. I like wolves. The only noise was howling. They caught something – it might have been a deer or a buck. The alpha wolf ran past first and led the pack. It is important to save the forests.

Rayn, age 11

I like to see the flowers and cacti and lots of pretty stuff. It snows and we saw footprints of deer, rabbit, quail and other birds.

Luis, age 6

I like to go hiking and take pictures of trees and cactus. We go camping.

Callia, age 6

I love to go camping. I went camping for my birthday. We didn't have to go far to enjoy the wilderness.

Alexis, age 5 ½

I went hiking in Escalante. There were slot canyons we had to squeeze through. We need to take care of the slot canyons so that people in the future can enjoy them just as much as I did.

Victoria, age 9

I like clouds. I like to watch the rain and the snow.

Ramona, age 4

I saw Alaska and I liked it. I was there with my family.

Ava, age 5

I like to go floating on the river. I like getting back on the boat by myself.

Chloe, age 8

I was walking on a trail near our cabin. I heard some rustling in the bushes. There was a red fox.

Joey, age 7

Once we went to geode beds and found a wagon full. Past our campsite was a ditch and I saw a lot of anthills. It was a lot of fun.

Johnnie, age 9

I love the wild! I am a national park junior ranger. Please help save the earth!

Dulce Horn

I like going to Arches and standing under the arches and eating lunch and playing around.

Charley, age 8

At the Great Salt Lake, I didn't see fish, only shrimp. I enjoyed floating.

Sam, age 10

I'm standing in a big field of grass picking flowers and these are the clouds.

Caty, age 6

We went to Mirror Lake with other families and every day we went out boating.

Desmond, age 6 ½

I went hiking with my family in Goblin Valley. I like hiking in Goblin Valley because there is no trail. I got to hike wherever I want. I hope we take care of Goblin Valley so I can hike there my whole life.

Savannah, age 7

I remember when we went canoeing the canoe tipped over and the water was only about three feet deep so we put our hands out and came back up!

Sam, age 10

I love the mountains to ski and to hike.

Wallace, age 9
